OUR WORKSHOPS

VALUE AND ETHICS

A hands-on workshop aimed at instilling company values. We explore the role of ethics to individual job roles and use practical examples to resolve common ethical dilemmas within the workplace, whilst enforcing company policy and the law.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Every organisation must comply with standards that accommodate and promote diversity and inclusion. This workshop analyses the definition of an inclusive workplace culture and, more practically, how it is developed and tailored to an individual organisation, and the secrets behind a successful implementation.

MANAGING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Recent failures to manage conflicts of interest within the financial services industry have drawn significant media and regulator attention. Licensees have an obligation to manage conflicts of interest and train their staff to be aware of them. This facilitated workshop is designed for financial services licensees and their staff to assist in compliance with RG 181.

UNCONSCIOUS BIAS

Unconscious bias is most commonly raised in recruitment but it affects all areas of an organisation, including team selection, enforcement of codes and policies and day-to-day tasks, how meetings are run and who gets credit for a job well done. Learning to recognise and analyse your unconscious biases leads to fairer and more reasonable outcomes and helps to create an inclusive organisational culture.
